NYC Anti-Violence Project	AVP serves New York’s Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, and HIV-affected communities, providing direct services such as immediate crisis intervention, safety planning, short or long-term counseling, police, court and social services advocacy and accompaniment, information and referrals to anyone who calls our hotline or comes to our main offices or one of our 10 intake sites throughout the five boroughs. AVP's free bilingual (English/Spanish), 24-hour, 365-day-a-year crisis intervention hotline, 212.714.1141, is staffed by professional counselors and trained volunteers who respond to the immediate needs of LGBTQ and HIV-affected survivors of any type of violence. AVP has ten intake sites across the five boroughs, and our services include projects specifically designed for transgender and gender non-conforming (TGNC) people of color. AVP has support groups for Sexual Violence and Intimate Partner Violence survivors, and ongoing drop-in groups for TGNC people and allies, all of which feature a supportive and focused curriculum to move people from trauma to healing. See our website www.avp.org for information and for a schedule of where we are at our ten intake sites, as well as opportunities to build community and volunteer.
